The writer is not disposed to murmur at the blunders of typesetters & and proof readers, for he knows to well the amenities of their business However, when a mistake involves a contradiction of meaning, correction is justly due him. Last Sunday's lesson says "the Word was not Diety"-It should have read: "The Word was not only Delty."

Another thing. The writer desired to publicly thank the Bible class of the First Raptist church for a very substantial Christmas gift. His appreciation of the kindness is not to be expressed in words, but best of all is the gratifying knowledge that his feeble efforts in behalf of the Master have been recognized by fellow human beings, and this expression of their appreciation will ever be gratefully remembered. May the Lord grant that this writer, like Balaam, sin. With this prayer, he wishes you

Owing to the various Christmas festivities that have taken place this week in all the churches, the numerous society and missionary meetings have been postponed until the first of the year. The reporters of each are requested to call the society editor each Monday morning if the church . notice for that week is to appear in the church column that has been set aside for that purpose and for the convenience of our patrons.
